

Failed TFF a success, says RBA

Read three articles from the 16 October Australian Alert Service:

Failed TFF a success, says RBA

From big shots to 'finance rats': How bankers have fallen in China
Offering up the high priests at the journalistic altar?

Failed TFF a success, says RBA

As if performing a deft sleight-of-hand conjuring trick, Christopher Kent, the Assistant Governor (Financial Markets) of the Reserve Bank of Australia, revealed that the government's hurriedly concocted COVID money-pumping scheme, the Term Funding Facility (TFF), was a failure, even as he claimed its success. ...

From big shots to 'finance rats': How bankers have fallen in China

A BBC article from 11 October heralds a paradigm shift taking place in China, which the world should be rushing to copy. ...

China Detains Investment Bankers, Takes Passports in Corruption Sweep

By Bloomberg News

Offering up the high priests at the journalistic altar?

Something has shaken the boffins in the world's central bank complex to the point where one of their inner circle, the Brit recently installed at the Reserve Bank of Australia, Andrew Hauser, felt compelled to talk to journalists about the secrecy of his world. ...

Click here to download the PDF and read the articles.

